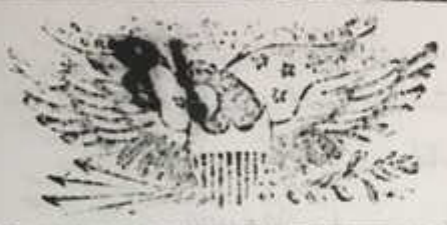
THE DEMOCRAT.

Owned by the influence of the rich or the great, the people must be heard, and their rights vindicated.

HUNTSVILLE, SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 10, 1838.

Cheap Goods for Cash.



THE DEMOCRAT.

HUNTSVILLE:

SATURDAY.....FEBRUARY 10, 1838.

gain.

Madison County, January 30, 1838.

Departed this life near Bellefonte, Jackson county, Alabama, on Monday morning, the 8th January, 1838, Mrs. ALETHA NORWOOD, in the 36th year of her age, consort of Col. Henry Norwood, and daughter of the late Col. George Caperton.

Mrs. Norwood has left a disconsolate husband, seven children, and many relations and friends to mourn her early departure from time to eternity;—but their loss has, we believe, been her eternal gain. She was a kind neighbor, an affectionate mother and a loving wife, which endeared her to them particularly, and generally to her relations. But she is gone—

"Beyond the vale of time,
Beyond the sleep of death,
Amid scenes eternal, scenes sublime,
Her soul has found a rest:
And there amid the glorious throng,
She joins a mother—swells a father's song."

Our slips from New York are to the evening of the