Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

TWELVE REASONS

Why I should vote for next President Wilson:

Because—

1. He is the only candidate for President who represents the real, the vital and the effective progressive forces of this country.

2. He stands for tariff revision downward in the interest of lower prices, and the elimination of monopoly.

3. He stands for trust legislation which will prevent the control of prices through any sort of monopoly.

4. He stands for the income tax and believes that wealth should share the burdens as well as the blessings of government.

5. He stands for the rights of labor and the protection of the man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow, as shown in his record as Governor of New Jersey.

6. He stands for the revival of our merchant marine, and for the government encouragement of agriculture, industrial and vocational education.

7. He trusts the people and believes that the governed should govern; and that Senators should be chosen by the people.

8. He faithfully performs in office the promises made out of office.

9. He will "clean house" at Washington as he has "cleaned house" in New Jersey.

10. He preaches and practices clean politics, and practices it effectively. He unutterly opposes machine politics and the rule of the bosses.

11. He stands for legitimate big business every day, but for monopoly never.

12. As Senator LaFollette says, "He approaches every problem with the solemn promise to be really, in the highest sense, a servant of the people."

OLD CONFEDERATES.

The John Watson Morton Chapter U. D. C. served dinner to 38 old soldiers Monday and presented 8 Crosses of Honor. It was the occasion of the celebration of Sam Davis' birthday anniversary, and the date falling on Sunday this year, was observed Monday.

The old soldiers were given a welcome by Mrs. A. D. Parnell, president of the chapter, in a short address, after which the crosses were pinned on the old veterans by Misses Nannie Odle, Allie B. Combs and Rosa Durdin, members of the chapter, who were dressed in white and wore Confederate flags. The occasion was not only beautiful, but it was made very impressive because it was the last bestowal of crosses.

Dinner was announced and each daughter escorted one or more old veterans to the long dining table, which was decked with snowy cloths, beautiful flowers and ferns, small Confederate flags and laden with a profusion of good things to eat (baked chicken and dressing, roast beef and brown gravy, sweet potatoes, corn light bread, salads, muffins, pickles and hot coffee.)

After dinner Capt. W. F. Maiden was called for and responded with a stirring speech in which he thanked the Daughters for the dinner and praised them for their great and noble work. Talks were made by R. C. Pafford and others. Tears flowed freely, and were mingled with smiles and many "God bless yous." It was indeed an enjoyable occasion for the boys who wore the gray and the Daughters and their families.

The display of a bonnet (made and worn by Aunt Cord Hudson in the sixties) brought back many memories of those dark and bloody days—memories of the hardships and strife that will not be effaced until every hero and heroine of the Civil War have found rest in the silent tomb.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hicks extended a cordial invitation to the Daughters to be their guests at a barbecue dinner February 7, 1913, an anniversary celebration of the birthday of Mr. Hicks, and it is needless to say the Daughters will go if possible, for they have not forgotten the good time had there last year.

As a parting salute the old veterans, led by J. H. Combs, gave the rebel yell. The old veterans present were: R. C. Pafford, O. T. Wilson, W. S. Potts, T. W. Barnes, W. F. Maiden, S. S. Clayton, John Balyew, A. H. Melton, B. A. Totty, John A. Holland, W. R. Hicks, J. L. Frazier, J. H. Combs, George C. Camp, J. K. P. Agnew, W. M. Warmack, O. C. Hudson, Burrell Jones, J. H. Wyly, C. C. Mitchell, H. L. Wheatley, J. M. Lashlee, J. W. Saunders, J. W. Florence, G. W. Galbreath, J. M. Cuff, John J. Eaves, J. J. Kee, E. C. Blakely, J. E. Elmore, A. E. Swindle, John M. Madden, S. B. Floyd, John Devault, J. C. Wheatley, Jim Pafford and J. C. Walker.

Crosses of Honor were given to J. E. Elmore, A. M. Frazier, John A. Holland, Tom B. Herrin, C. C. Mitchell, J. C. Wheatley, Henry F. Stigall and H. L. Wheatley.

The next meeting of the U. D. C. will be with Mrs. T. J. Lowry Thursday, November 7.

5 or 6 doses 666 will break any case of chills and fever, and if taken then as a tonic the fever will not return. Price, 25 cents.
