

Town and County News

Hubert Massey, of Clarksburg, entered the I. T. S. this week.

Miss Iva Bonds who has been teaching at Mansfield is home.

Misses Belah and Ruby Lankford, who are teaching in the Paris school, are at home this week.

Mrs. Cecil Arnold and little son spent a few days since our last issue with relatives in the Yuma community.

Miss Lillian McKinney, of McMoresville, was the guest of the family of B. C. Joyner from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Britt went to Nashville last Saturday where she has accepted a position in the Tennessee Industrial school.

Mrs. C. A. Holladay, of Trezevant, is here with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Norman, who has been sick for a week with pneumonia.

Miss Estelle Tatum, who has been teaching at Daffron, is with Mrs. W. W. Murray for the three weeks' period of suspension of the schools.

After a two weeks' visit with homefolk, Oliver Bullock left Thursday of last week for Memphis, where he will await his call as aviator pilot.

Miss E. Love Hawkins returned home the middle of last week from Trezevant and will be home during the suspension of the school for the cold weather.

FOR SALE—A few settings of choice eggs from my Single-Comb Rhode Island Reds, thoroughbreds, $1.50 per 15. Homer T. Hill, Rector, Ark., box 244. 1-4t

Connie Williams who has a furlough from Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., spent a few days here this week with his brother and sister, Otho and Miss Effie Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lusky were called to Nashville last week by the death of Mrs. Lusky's sister, Mrs. Ida Friedman, Thursday night. Mr. Lusky returned home Sunday but Mrs. Lusky went on to Bainbridge, Ga., to visit her daughter, Mrs. N.H. Nussbaum.

Good Automobile Mechanics are in demand. We teach by practical experience, and guarantee position or refund tuition. Auto Training School, Department H., 103 11th avenue S., Nashville, Tenn. 1-4t

There was no church or Sunday school services in town last Sunday, except Sunday night Rev. J. M. Pickens, the new presiding elder, held a service at the Methodist church. Only a few, however, braved the weather to attend. All the rest of the services of the various churches were called in.

The I.T.S. is only partially suspended during the cold spell. The high school work is continued. The boarding students and those in town taking the high school work did not desire the school to close, and Prof. Hendrickson got permission from the fuel administration to continue this part of the work, provided he would use wood for fuel. The boys donned overalls and went to the woods in search of fuel. They soon had several cords on the campus, and Wilson heaters were installed, and school is progressing nicely. These boys deserve great credit for their brave efforts to keep school going.

I. E. Ingle and Miss Mary West were married last Monday in the dental office of Dr. D. L. King, Squire L. A. Hurt officiating. The groom is a grandson of I. S. Ingle, living on route seven. Miss West is the daughter of William West, who also lives on route seven. They will leave soon for Nebraska, where they expect to make their home.

Organization of 83 of the 96 counties of the state for the federal food administration has now been completed by Dr. H. A. Morgan, the federal food administrator for the state. Prof. D. T. Barnhill has been commissioned food administrator for Carroll county. Mr. Barnhill has already assumed the duties of the office and will do his best to carry out the wishes of the government.

Elmer Bond

On the night of January 18, the death angel visited the home of Mrs. S. E. Bond and claimed as its victim her son, Elmer R. Bond.

During his brief illness loving hands did everything possible in his behalf but to no avail. The hand of death was placed upon his brow, and it was the divine will that he leave this world of sorrow. Elmer was a splendid young man, honest and upright, a loving son, an affectionate brother and kind to every one, always ready to lend a helping hand in time of trouble. He will be greatly missed by the entire community.

He leaves a mother, three brothers, six sisters and a host of friends to mourn his death.

He was laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery Saturday afternoon, January 19. May the Lord bless and comfort the bereaved in their affliction.

A FRIEND.

Banks to Help

Interest grows in the matter of increasing our hog production. Both banks in Huntingdon, both in McKenzie, the two at Trezevant and the Bank of Hollow Rock have agreed to loan money at six per cent for the purchase of brood sows. This action on the part of the banks is a good stimulant to the movement and their interest is appreciated by those who are trying to make this important campaign a success.

As the farmers prosper so does business thrive and the interest taken by our business men is a