

Margery Smallwood, 72

Margery Smallwood

PORTLAND — Margery Smallwood, 72, of Portland, died on Nov. 10, 2012, at her home. She was the wife of Bruce A. Smallwood.

She was born in Fall River, Mass., on May 16, 1940, the only child of Arthur and Elizabeth (Morgan) Silveira. Marge grew up in Newport, R.I., attending local area schools and graduating from Case High School.

She married Bruce on Dec. 20, 1980, after meeting him in South Carolina and they moved to Portland in 1993.

Marge was a lifetime member of the VFW Post 6859 Auxiliary as well as a member of AMVets and the Fraternal Order of Eagles Auxiliary in Portland, where her and her husband ran the dart league for several years.

She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, knitting and preparing homemade dishes, including her baked stuffed shrimp.

Besides her husband of 32 years, she is survived by her daughter, Jean Rogers of Portland; and her grandson, Aaron Rogers of Miami, Fla. She also leaves numerous aunts and cousins.

There will be no services. Arrangements are under the care of Advantage Funeral & Cremation Services, 981 Forest Ave., Portland. Please visit www.advantageportland.com to sign Marge's guestbook.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory can be made to:
